Why Weddings with 7° South

ONE WORD:

“Wedding” and the following images come to mind: a happy couple, an idyllic location, a romantic setting, flowers and champagne, an exotic destination.

ANOTHER WORD:

“Seychelles” and these other images come to mind: warm, clear, blue seas, dazzlingly white pristine beaches, bright sunshine and a cool breeze underneath the coconut trees; gentle waves lapping the shore, lush vegetation from coast to mountaintop.

THEREFORE:

It follows that a wedding in Seychelles is a dream combination.

With 7°South this dream is easily turned into reality.

Our professional team will advise and assist with the preparations – from choosing the venue to presenting the newlyweds with their wedding certificate during their stay in Seychelles.

WHERE:

Weddings can be organised on many of the Seychelles islands. However, weddings are mainly arranged on the islands of Mahé, Praslin and La Digue as these islands have all the necessary infrastructures to ensure the smooth running of the event.

For the civil ceremony the venue is normally at the hotel where the couple is staying. Many hotels offer a choice of beautiful locations: the exotic gardens, the beach, terraces or halls overlooking the ocean. The religious ceremony will be celebrated at the Cathedral or district church.

WHEN:

Civil weddings are easily organised from Monday to Friday. On two days a week, weddings can be officiated at the Civil Status Offices. For weekends and public holidays they are subject to the officer’s availability and a higher fee is applicable.

HOW:

The civil ceremony will involve a Civil Status Officer (Registrar) coming to the venue and celebrating the brief rite.

Two witnesses will be required.

7°SOUTH:

7° South will inform you of all the necessary documentation that has to be submitted before the wedding. Our staff will take charge and carry out all the necessary formalities pertaining to the Civil Status as well as co-ordinating the arrangements at the clients’ choice of venue.
